Join the Citizens Advisory Facilities Naming Committee Regarding Conrad Elvehjem Primary School

COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES	Gather information, review feedback, and make a recommendation to the McFarland School Board regarding WHETHER Conrad Elvehjem Primary School should be renamed. The Board will vote on whether to rename the school. If the school is to be renamed, the committee will facilitate a process to identify a new name to recommend to the Board. Background: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Board voted to establish this advisory committee in response to a request by a McFarland High School student citing concerns that Conrad Elvehjem had signed a racially restrictive covenant indicating he would not allow individuals of Ethiopian descent to live in his Nakoma area home in the city of Madison and allegations of his involvement in suppressing a documentary on housing discrimination. For more information, please see the recordings of the board meetings on January 8, 2024, August 7, 2023, July 17, 2023, and May 1, 2023, on our website.
DATES AND TIMES	4 meetings, 6:00-7:30 p.m., January 16th and 29th, February 12th and 26th Interested members will present a recommendation to the board on March 3rd. If the Board votes to change the name members will have an opportunity to continue with future meetings.
COMMITTEE MEMBERS	12-15 community members, parents/guardians, students, and staff. Members will be selected randomly. Staff members will constitute a minority of the committee per policy.
